The Ada Mae Smith Scholarship provides scholarships to African-American students taking courses at the University Center of Southern Oklahoma who demonstrate commitment to academic excellence. Students of African-American descent are eligible to apply for the scholarship based on the following criteria:

A student must:

1. Be a legal resident of Carter County, Oklahoma
2. Be in good academic standing with all higher education institutions previously attended.
3. Complete the application for Federal Student Aid and have received a Student Aid Report (SAR).
4. Enroll in 6 or more hours at UCSO during the semester in which a scholarship is received.
5. Maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average according to the following scale:

0-15 hours	2.0 GPA
16-30 hours	2.5 GPA
Over 30 hours	3.0 GPA
Graduate	3.0 GPA
6. Must have completed 6 hours of college credit to apply.

NOTE: If you meet the above criteria, the following documents must be attached to the application:

1. Official Transcript of all previous academic work,
2. A copy of your Student Aid Report (SAR)
3. A copy of the billing statement from your college or university.

NOTE: Zero level classes are not covered by this scholarship nor are they considered in calculating total credit hours. This scholarship cannot be used to cover fees paid in advance of the award and is not refundable to the student. It can only be applied to courses taken through University Center of Southern Oklahoma. Recipients who withdraw from a class covered by this scholarship will not be eligible to apply the next semester they enroll at the Center. The financial aid office of the recipient's home campus will be notified. The amount of a financial aid award may be affected by receipt of this scholarship.

All applicants will be notified in writing of acceptance or rejection of the Anna Mae Smith Foundation Scholarship.
