Funded by gifts from McCrary Foundation, the Henry Bridge Trust and the UCSO Bill Darnell Scholarship Fund, the UCSO Tuition Assistance Grant is awarded to deserving students in southern Oklahoma enrolled in an institutional partner of the University Center of Southern Oklahoma who have demonstrated motivation to attend school through previous grade-point average or ACT score. The scholarship may be used only at the University Center to pay tuition and fees for courses taken at the center and is awarded only when funds are available.

Students are eligible to apply for the scholarship based on the following criteria:

A student must:

- a. Have completed at least 12 credit hours of college with a minimum of a 2.5 GPA.
- b. Not have completed a bachelor's degree.
- c. Not receive funding for tuition and books from other sources. (Pell, BIA, Voc Rehab, etc...)
- d. Be enrolled in six (6) or more undergraduate hours (1000-4000 level) for the semester during which a scholarship is received.
- e. Be a legal resident of Oklahoma.
- f. Be in good standing with all higher education institutions previously attended.
- g. Maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 on all coursework beyond the freshman year.
- h. Completed the application for Federal Student Aid and received a Student Aid Report (SAR).

NOTE: If you meet the above criteria, the following documents must be attached to this application:

(1) A current Official Transcript of all previous academic work and (2) a copy of your Student Aid Report (SAR) not a summary. (3) A copy of your billing statement. To be considered, applications must be complete. Return application to USCO administration office by the final deadline: August 27, 2018. Applications that are turned in without proper documentation will not be considered.

NOTE: Zero level classes are not covered by this scholarship nor are they considered in calculating total credit hours. This scholarship cannot be used to cover fees paid in advance of the award and is not refundable to the student. It can only be applied to courses in which students are enrolled at the University Center of Southern Oklahoma. Recipients who withdraw from a course covered by this scholarship will not be eligible to apply the next semester they enroll at the Center. The financial aid office of the recipient's home campus will be notified. The amount of a financial aid award may be affected by receipt of this scholarship.

Qualified, completed student applications will be ranked in order of financial need and the date the application is received in the University Center office. All applicants will be notified in writing of acceptance or rejection.
